Task— A creation myth is a cultural, religious or traditional story which describes the earliest beginnings of the present world. A creation myth is usually regarded by those who believe in them as showing important truths (i.e. a divine being created the world), though not necessarily thought to be historically or literally true.

Find an example of a creation myth and represent the story in your own way of choosing e.g. storyboard, animation, podcast.

Task— “It is possible to believe in the Big Bang and religious teachings about the origins of the universe.”

Evaluate this statement. In your answer you:

- Give reasons/evidence to support the statement.
- Give reasons/evidence to disagree with the statement.
- Provide both religious and non-religious ideas.
- Reach a conclusion which is justified by the points given.

Task— Find out what ‘stewardship’ is. Which religious believers think they are stewards of the world? Why? How might someone’s religious views on creation influence how they treat the world?

You can choose how you present your findings.

Signed:

Task— Find out about a famous scientist who is also religious. Create a fact file recording both their scientific and religious views.

Signed:

Task— Create a piece of artwork to show your beliefs about the creation of the world. You can choose to do this in any way you like. It could be a painting, model, sculpture, collage, mosaic, video, or something else!
